

The Middle Ages Medicine Quiz

The Middle Ages followed the collapse of the:

- * Greek Empire
- * Roman Empire
- * Egyptian Age
- * Prehistoric Age

Most Roman medical ideas:

- * carried on
- * were forgotten
- * were developed further
- * ignored

Medical ideas were popular that had been thought up by:

- * Aristotle
- * Imphotep
- * Galen
- * Pliny

In the Middle Ages there was:

- * no progress in medicine
- * some progress in medicine
- * little of progress in medicine
- * lots of progress in medicine

Dissection was:

- * always allowed
- * never allowed
- * rarely allowed
- * often allowed

Knowledge of anatomy was:

- * excellent
- * worse than before
- * basically the same
- * quite a lot better

Knowledge of physiology was:

- * excellent
- * better than before
- * about the same as before
- * worse than before

Many people believed in the:

- * Four humours Theory
- * Germ Theory
- * Blockage theory
- * The Chaos theory

Superstitious ideas were popular amongst:

- * young people
- * old people
- * men
- * common ordinary people

The position of what was thought to cause illness:

- * clouds
- * planets
- * your home
- * Mrs Brady

Belief in illness as a punishment from God was:

- * not at all popular
- * very popular
- * about the same as before
- * quite popular

Common treatments for illness were:

- * antibiotics
- * bleeding and herbal remedies
- * surgery and operations
- * trephining pprocedures

Professional training for doctors began around:

- * 1000 AD
- * 1500 AD
- * 1400 AD
- * 1200 AD

Most medical schools were run by:

- * businessmen
- * churches
- * old doctors
- * barber surgeons

Barber surgeons became popular with:

- * rich people
- * young people
- * poor people
- * everyone

Surgery got a little bit better because:

- * there were many wars
- * surgeons got paid more
- * everyone wanted to be a doctor
- * metal tools were available

Opium began to be used to:

- * make patients happy
- * make people sleepy
- * make people forgetful
- * strong and healthy

Interest in hygiene was:

- * much better than before
- * about the same as before
- * much worse than before
- * a little better than before