

Timeline of Roman Britain

c. 54 BC	Julius Caesar attempts to invade Britain.
43 AD	Romans invade and take over Britain.
49	Roman London founded.
60	Queen Boudica's revolt against the Romans fails. (She drank poison so she wouldn't be taken prisoner)
70 ~ 84	Romans conquer Wales and Scotland.
122-133	Construction of Hadrian's Wall to keep the Picts of Scotland out of the Roman lands in England.
140-142	Construction of Antonine Wall in Scotland. (this did not last long)
155	Pictish (tribes from Scotland) attacks breach Roman defences.
211	Romans control Caledonia (Scotland).
306	Constantine the Great proclaimed emperor in York.
409	The last Roman troops withdraw from Britain.

NOW, HOW WELL CAN YOU USE A TIMELINE?

Answer these in FULL SENTENCES.

- Which word in the timeline means to leave?
- Which word in the timeline means to beat and take over somewhere?
- Which word in the timeline means to try to take over a place?
- Which word in the timeline means built or started?
- Which word means the person in charge of the Roman Empire?
- Which word means to fight against someone in control?

Answer these questions in full sentences

- When did the Romans invade Britain? (There are 2 answers)
- When did the Romans start to build London?
- Who was the first Roman to come to Britain and when?
- Who tried to fight against the Romans and how successful were they?
- Which emperor was proclaimed in York and when?
- What name did the Romans give to Scotland?
- When was Hadrian's Wall built and why?
- How long did the Romans rule in Britannia?

