

Puritan Trials and Punishments

1. Read the extracts on the people who have been accused of various crimes in Puritan England.
2. Fill in the table below, so you are ready to prosecute each person, remember that you need to think about the beliefs of Puritans and how they viewed each crime (you may want to look back in your books).

Person	What have they done wrong?	Why do you believe it is wrong? What should they have done? (Think about your beliefs about what they are doing)	How should they be punished?
