

The Great Fire of London

You must write a report to the King. Use all your information about the fire to help you

Your report MUST include:

- Details of how you think the fire started.
- What damage the fire did.
- How the fire was stopped.
- How long the fire lasted.
- Thanks to the king for his help.

Remember, this report is for the King - so it has to be excellent!

Use the frames to begin your paragraphs, and then complete them with your information...

Your Majesty,

I, _____ am writing to you to report the recent fire in London. I saw everything that happened and I am confident I can tell you everything in detail. Firstly I feel it is important to tell you about the recent weather and why this was important ...

The evidence I have clearly explains how the fire started ...

We used two different ways to fight the fire. Firstly the Lord Mayor tried to ...

I feel it is very important to record your own efforts to fight the fire ...

The fire did eventually end, but many buildings were destroyed. The figures I have show that ...

I hope that my report is helpful to you.

Yours sincerely ...
