

Put your name and tutor group here: _____

Thomas a' Becket (1118 - 1170)

In this space I would put ...

The message would be ...

In this space I would put ...

The message would be ...

In this space I would put ...

The message would be ...

In this space I would put ...

The message would be ...

In this space I would put ...

The message would be ...

In this space I would put ...

The message would be ...

Imagine you have been asked to design a portrait for this person. You must decide what objects and images to put in the portrait along with the person to send out the right messages. Describe the objects and images you would use and then say why you would use them and what message they send out.