

James II and the Glorious Revolution

1

In the boxes below you can find both causes and consequences of the Revolution of 1688. Draw a table like the one below. Using the information in each box, decide if it is a cause or a consequence, and then write it in the correct column.

Causes	Consequences

Battle of the Boyne
 Toleration Act
 The Bill of Rights
 James II fled to France
 James II promotes Roman Catholics to important positions
 Declaration of Indulgence
 Cabinet Government
 Glencoe Massacre
 Leading nobles offer support to William of Orange
 William of Orange decides to invade England
 Threat to Protestant religion and the church of England
 A Catholic Britain seems a possibility
 Parliament offers throne to William and Mary
 Birth of a son to Mary of Modena and James II
 New opportunities for Non-Conformists
 William lands and offers to work with Parliament

2

a) What were the most important reasons for the 1688 Revolution?

b) What were the most important results of the 1688 Revolution?

3

Using the frames below, write out two of the more important short-term and long-term consequences of the 1688 Revolution.

In my opinion, two of the more important short-term consequences of the 1688 Revolution were I think this because

In my opinion, two of the more important long-term consequences of the 1688 Revolution were I think this because