

The making of the United Kingdom

England

Scotland

Wales

Ireland

In 1500, England was _____ about her neighbours. England's _____ might attack from any of the surrounding countries.

1 Wales was ruled by _____. They constantly _____ amongst themselves.

Wales was a threat to England because _____ 2 Scotland had its own _____. Scotland and England were _____, as Scotland was friendly with _____.

Scotland was a threat to England because _____ 3 Ireland was a _____ country, and was supported by other _____ such as _____. England controlled an area of Ireland called the _____.

Ireland was a threat to England because _____

Found at www.SchoolHistory.co.uk

WORD BOX

King and Queen
enemies
Catholic countries
worried
English Marcher Lords
quarrelled and fought Catholic
Pale
old enemies
Spain
France